Application for Enrollment: Doctrinal Statement
(To be signed by Prospective Parent/s and Student)

The Doctrinal Statement is the foundation upon which The Cambridge School of Dallas is based. It states key elements of Christianity that are unapologetically taught at all grade levels.

We believe in the verbal, plenary inspiration of both the Old and New Testament in the original documents, both of which are infallible and inerrant and that they are our final and absolute authority in every area of life and knowledge.

We believe that there is one God, eternally existent in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. He is omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent.

We believe in the deity of our Lord Jesus Christ, His virgin birth, His sinless life, His miracles, His vicarious and atoning death through His shed blood, His bodily resurrection, His ascension to the right hand of the Father, and His personal return in power and glory.

We believe that God the Holy Spirit is a personal being who convicts the world of sin, regenerates, indwells, empowers, guides, bestows spiritual gifts on believers, and seals them eternally for God. We believe that for the salvation of lost and sinful men, regeneration by the Holy Spirit is absolutely necessary.

We believe that man was created by a direct act of God in His image, and God breathed into man the breath of life, that all men sinned in Adam (the historical father of the entire human race) and thus incurred both physical and spiritual death and inherited a sinful nature.

We believe that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone.

We believe that faith without works is dead.

We believe in the bodily resurrection of both the just and the unjust, the everlasting blessedness of the saved and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

We believe in the spiritual unity of all believers in our Lord Jesus and that all are under the mandate to make disciples of all nations.

Tuition alone does not cover the entire cost of your student's education. By conducting Annual and Capital Campaigns, The Cambridge School of Dallas keeps tuition at an affordable level while providing parents the opportunity to subsidize their children's education with tax-deductible contributions. The Annual Campaign raises money for the operating budget as well as special school projects, such as new athletic uniforms and computers. The Capital Campaign raises money to provide major capital assets for the school, such as land, buildings, or building improvements. While no parent at The Cambridge School of Dallas is required to contribute to these campaigns, every parent is encouraged to prayerfully consider doing so.

We/I certify that the information given on this application is factual and true and based on our/my agreement with the mission and educational philosophy of The Cambridge School of Dallas.
