

Education: PhD, University of Aberdeen, Scotland, 1991
Thesis: "The Place and Use of Scripture in the Pastoral Epistles"
Supervisor: I. Howard Marshall
Additional studies at the Universities of Cambridge, and Tübingen,
MA, Dallas Baptist University, 1986
BCA, Dallas Baptist College, 1983

Current Position: Headmaster, The Cambridge School of Dallas, 2009-Present

Previous Academic and other Professional Experience:

Huber L. Drumwright, Jr. Associate Professor of New Testament, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, 2000 – 2009
The Criswell College: Associate Professor of New Testament, 1990-2000
Various administrative positions held at both of the above institutions
Dallas Baptist University: Adjunct Professor of New Testament, 1990
Founding Pastor, Ellon Baptist Church, Ellon Scotland, April, 1987-December, 1988
Independent contractor in custom cabinet and furniture manufacturing and custom homebuilding, 1976-1986

Select Publications:

"The Sagacious Use of Scripture" in Entrusted with the Gospel: Paul's Theology in the Pastoral Epistles. A. Kostenberger and T. Wilder eds. (Nashville: B & H, 2010)
"Appraising Recent New Testament Studies," Southwestern Journal of Theology 52.1 (2009), pp.74-82
"Hope Enacted: Forgiveness as Ethical Foundation in the New Testament," Southwestern Journal of Theology 45.3 (2003), pp.18-29
"The Prophet's Understanding or Understanding the Prophets?: 2 Peter 1:20 Reconsidered," Baptist Review of Theology 8.1 (1998) pp.92-106
"Revival in Our Day? Reviews and Reflections," Criswell Theological Review 5.2 (1991)
pp.287-301
"Scripture in the Pastoral Epistles – PreMarcion Marcionism?," Perspectives in Religious Studies
16.1 (1989) pp.5-16

Editorial Contributions:

Consulting editor – New Testament, New American Commentary series (Nashville: B&H), 2002-present
Revision team member, Concordance to the Greek New Testament, 6th ed. I. H. Marshall, ed.
(Edinburgh: T & T Clark, 2002)
Translation consultant for I and II Peter, Holman Christian Standard Bible: New Testament
(Nashville: LifeWay, 2000)
Assistant Editor, Criswell Theological Review, 1991-1992, Co-editor, 1992-1995
Assistant and Contributing Editor, The Believer's Study Bible (Nashville: Thomas Nelson, 1991)

Dozens of book reviews in numerous publications, as well as interview and participation in both local and national radio and television programs and print media.

Select Lectures and Professional Presentations:

"Orthodox Hermeneutical Commitments: The Eyes of Classical Christian Education." Society for Classical Learning, Dallas, TX. June 17, 2016.

“The Heart of the New Testament: What Binds Together the 27 Books of the NT?,” Faculty Lyceum, The Cambridge School of Dallas, September 19, 2014.

“Recent and Current Developments within New Testament Studies,” a paper read to the Arlington Ministerial Alliance, First Baptist Church, Arlington, TX, March 1, 2005

“Imitari Christum: Jesus as Pastoral Exemplar According to Phil 2:7 and Gregory Nazianzen’s Oration 12,” Evangelical Theological Society national meeting, San Antonio, TX, November 17, 2004

“Paul and the Law: Beyond the Old and New Perspectives,” a response to Douglas Moo read at the Evangelical Theological Society Southwest Regional meeting, Dallas Theological Seminary, Dallas, TX, March 13, 2004

“Evangelicals, Paradigmatic Pitfalls and I Tim. 5:18,” Presidential Address, Evangelical Theological Society – Southwest Region; New Orleans, LA; March 1999

“The Theology of Peter,” Evangelical University; San Salvador, El Salvador, March 13, 1996

“The Theology of Paul,” Evangelical University; San Salvador, El Salvador, March 11, 1996

“On Taking Gamaliel Seriously: Evangelicals and Catholics,” Evangelical Theological Society Southwest Regional meeting, Lubbock, TX, March 1996

“Homosexuality and Christianity: A Collision of the Bible and Culture,” Evangelical Theological Society Southwest Regional meeting, Dallas, TX, March 1995

“2 Peter 1:20: The Prophet’s Understanding or Understanding the Prophets?,” Tyndale House for Biblical Studies; Cambridge, England, 1988

“Philo’s View of the Inspiration of the Scriptures,” University of Aberdeen; Aberdeen, Scotland, 1988

“Law as Scripture in Paul,” University of Aberdeen; Aberdeen, Scotland, 1987

“Scripture in the Pastoral Epistles – PreMarcion Marcionism?,” University of Aberdeen; Aberdeen, Scotland, 1987

Radio:

Founder and host of Laus Deo, a one hour weekly, nation-wide, live, call-in program of “provocative perspective and discussion promoting orthodox Christianity,” broadcast weekly on Sirius Satellite radio. The program was rebroadcast two other times each week. 2006-2009.

Select Professional Affiliations:

Evangelical Theological Society (President, Southwest Region, 1997-98)
International Reference Library for Biblical Research (Board of Directors, 2004-2012)
Society for Classical Learning
Texas Private School Association
Fellow, Institute for Biblical Research

Ordination: Bridge of Don Baptist Church, Aberdeen, Scotland, 1990